MEDICINAL.

A Ray of Light

For woman's guidance is found in the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures female weakness and the diseases of the delicate womanly organs which darken the lives of so many women with suffering and sorrow. That ray of light has penetrated many darkened chambers where women moaned in misery, and has guided them out to health and happiness. "Favorite Prescription" is not a tonic, not a palliative, but a positive cure for the diseases which are peculiar to women. It gives vigor and vitality. It banishes nervousness, headache, and all the aches which come from a diseased condition of the womanly organs. A temperance medicine, it contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I was troubled for three years with ulceration and female weakness and my doctor gave me but little relief," writes Mrs. Lulu Hunter, of Allenton, St. Louis Co., Mo. "I saw an advertisement in the paper of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I began the use of it about a year ago. I took five bottles of it, and one bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and my health is better now than it was for years. I have also recommended these medicines to some of my friends, who suffered from female weakness, and good results have followed."

SUICIDE ON WEDDING DAY.

William D. Bender committed suicide in St. Louis at noon on Wednesday while a carriage was waiting at the door to take him to his wedding. He was found a few minutes later by his friends, who went to his room to summon him.

He was to have been married at the church at 2 o'clock to Miss Annie Kienle. Miss Kienle was at Bender's home Wednesday morning, but shortly before noon left for her home to prepare for the wedding. She and Bender appeared in the best of spirits.

After she left Bender went to his room, supposedly to dress for the ceremony. He had not been absent more than ten minutes when a carriage drove up to the door gayly decorated with white satin ribbons. His friends went to his room and found him lying upon the bed beside his wedding clothes. He had shot himself and was unconscious. He died soon after he was discovered.

A little later Miss Kienle arrived at the home of her intended husband. She was dressed in bridal robes, ready for the wedding. She found a policeman standing over Bender's dead body and faintly, his friends caught no reason for his act.

The wedding ceremony yesterday afternoon was to have been a double one. Miss Henrietta Bender, a sister of the suicide, and Theodore Kelly were to have been married at the same time as Bender and Miss Kienle. They left the house soon after Bender died and were married, the opinion being that the wedding arrangements had gone so far that there was no necessity of delaying the ceremony on account of the tragedy.

The other members of Bender's family were absent at the time of the suicide, attending the funeral of the elder Mr. Bender's brother, in Belleville.

CONFEDERATE HALL.

The Confederate Hall, now in course of erection on the Mississippi river bluff at Memphis, Tenn., for the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which begins May 28, will be the largest public entertainment building in the South. It is 205 feet wide and 265 feet long. One million feet of lumber will be used in its construction.

It will have a seating capacity of 15,000, equal to that of Madison Square Garden, New York.

There will be seats for 10,000 people in the galleries and 5,000 on the main floor.

Sleeping accommodations for 800 people will be arranged under the floor on the west side.

There will be a driveway encircling the dance floor, separating it from the galleries. This arrangement is for the flower parade, which will be a night attraction.

The building will be illuminated by 50 arch lights.

The dance hall will be 100 feet wide and 165 feet long, and will accommodate 750 couples at one time.

The music stand will be suspended over the floor from the ceiling.

There will be four main entrances. The largest one will open an Front street and will be 32 feet wide. The other three, 16 feet wide each, will open on Court, Jefferson and the west side.

There will be headquarters for 12 States. These rooms will open on Front street and may be used for sleeping apartments.

The whole of the building will be painted white.

The cost will be in the neighborhood of $17,000.

Contractor Young expects to have the main part of building completed by May 15.

A Testimonial From Old England. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, having most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character.

They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Trust those who have tried. I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm came to my aid. It cured me in 45 days. I am now well. Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and am entirely well.—A. C. Clarke, 341 Shawmut Ave., Boston, Mass.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cents or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 50c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

You will waste time if you try to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind and it is the one remedy that will do it.
